COMMENTS

SYLVESTER TURNER

JUVENILE CURFEW

Juvenile curfew ordinances harm youth and should be eliminated.

COMMENT:

"On the Juvenile Curfew question: We significantly eased the juvenile curfew and created avenues to keep young people out of the criminal justice system. After consulting with many stakeholders, I was not convinced that a full repeal was warranted."

KENDALL BAKER

CRIMINAL JUSTICE

I support "Smart Justice" policies that place less emphasis on criminalizing conduct and a greater focus on directing resources to address the underlying problems, like substance abuse, mental health issues, and lack of stable housing.

COMMENT:

"Except in matters where violent criminals are concerned."

JOHNNY "J.T." TAYLOR

VOTING RIGHTS

I support policies that encourage greater voter participation, including online voter registration and polling locations on college/university campuses.

COMMENT:

"We are fighting hard under The ALL Campaign (Stronger Together) to add electronic voting machines into Harris County jails so inmates who still maintains their voting rights may exercise their vote. Note, Harris County Commissioner Court approved the 1st phase on 8-27-19 based on work. Catch the "Light & Wave" of The ALL Campaign (Stronger Together) @ www.Taylor4Houston.com"
